VERY SAD AND IMPRESSIVE THE FUNERAL

Of the Late Rev. Dr. J. T. McClure,
Which Occurred Thursday
Afternoon From the

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A Great Outpouring of Ministers and Laymen to Pay Their Last Loving Tribute.

The funeral of the late Rev. James T. McClure occurred yesterday afternoon from the United Presbyterian church, and was attended by a concourse of sorrowing friends and citizens that filled every pew in the edifice. Citizens of all walks of life and creeds attended the services and by their presence manifested the loss the community suffered in the death of the honored and venerable pastor of the church.

Nearly all the members of the Wheeling presbytery of the United Presbyterian church were present, including Rev. Thomas Ralph, D. D., of St. Clairsville, Ohio; Rev. W. G. Waddell, D. D., of Unity, Ohio; Rev. D. D. Dods, Belmont, Ohio; Rev. A. R. Robinson, Martin's Ferry; Rev. W. M. Hopping, of Uniontown, Ohio; Rev. W. M. Coleman, of West Alexander, Pa., was unable to attend. A prominent visiting member of this denomination present was Rev. John A. Wilson, D. D., of the Allegheny theological seminary, of which Dr. McClure was a graduate. Nearly every pastor of the local Protestant churches enrolled in the Wheeling Ministerial Association, attended in a body.

The services, which were in charge of Rev. J. H. Littell, the co-pastor of the church, and who will now be the sole pastor, were simple and impressive and were of an hour's duration. The principal address was delivered by Rev. Dr. Wilson. The exercises opened with the invocation, which was delivered by Rev. Mr. Hopping. The scriptural reading was made by Rev. D. A. Cunningham, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and the prayer by Rev. Jacob Brittingham, rector of St. Luke's P. E. church. Then came the addresses, three in number, after which there was prayer by Rev. J. L. Sooy, D. D., pastor of the Fourth Street M. E. church, followed by the benediction by Rev. J. H. Littell.

The speakers had all known the deceased for many years. Dr. Wilson, who had enjoyed his friendship for thirty years, was the first speaker. Dr. Waddell was a co-presbyter of the deceased for forty years, and the other speaker, Dr. Ralph, had known him for twenty-five years. All united in eloquent tributes to Dr. McClure's effective pastoral work and his long and conscientious service to the Master. At the conclusion of the services the remains were conveyed to Greenwood cemetery for interment, which was private.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. A. M. Stevenson, John M. Brown, Thomas W. Nesbitt, William Hare, William Ellingham, Dr. John L. Dickey and James McAdams.

Among the out-of-town relatives at the funeral were Mr. Byron Wall, Mrs. Sarah Wall, Miss Bessie Wall and Mr. Robert McGonigal, of Pittsburgh.

THE TENER FUNERAL

Many Friends of the Family Attend
the Last Sad Rites.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Nora B. Tener occurred yesterday afternoon from the home of her father, Mr. Robert Simpson, on Fourteenth street. It was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the family, and there were many beautiful floral tributes. Rev. Joseph Speers, of the Second Presbyterian church, conducted the services. The pall bearers were Messrs. George Baird, James Ewing, Howard McDonald, Latane McLain and Howard and Harry Simpson.

The interment was at Greenwood cemetery. Out-of-town people attending the funeral were: Mrs. Laird, Miss McClelland and Mrs. Anderson, of Claysville; Mrs. Howard and daughter, of Wellsburg; J. H. Tener, the Misses Tener and Mr. Tener, of Pittsburgh, and William Carroll and wife, of Belaire.

FOUR L. O. O. F. LODGES

Of the City Unite in a Joint Public
Installation of Officers Last Night
It Was a Very Entertaining Function.

The four Wheeling lodges of the Odd Fellows last night held a joint public installation of their recently elected officers, and the event attracted a throng of people that taxed the Odd Fellows' hall to its limit, while hundreds were turned away, unable to gain admission. The gathering was in attendance, one of the largest for years in affairs held by secret societies, and a most interesting programme was rendered.

The idea of jointly installing the officers of the local lodges was conceived some time ago, and committees were appointed from the several lodges and were organized into a general committee. Invitations were issued to all the Wheeling members of the order and their friends, and the fair sex was very much in evidence at last night's affair. The installation ceremonies were beautiful and impressive. This was the feature of the programme, which consisted also of music by Professor Chas. Killmeyer, songs by the Aeolian Male Quartette, and recitations by Arthur Welsberger. At its conclusion a large banquet was served in the dining hall on another floor, after which dancing reigned until an early hour. The success of the entire affair was creditable to the committee, and it instilled renewed interest in this powerful organization.

The installation was conducted by the following, who with the exception of Henry Seamon, state treasurer, had to be authorized for such by the grand lodge:

Grand master—Godfrey Schulz.
Grand marshal—D. W. Martin.
Grand Warden—L. J. Davis.
Grand secretary—John Bachtler.
Grand treasurer—Henry Seamon.
Grand inside guard—Wm. Steen.
The following were the officers installed:

Virgilus lodge No. 2—Noble grand, Jacob Britt; vice grand, W. F. Crouch; secretary, Chas. T. Reed; treasurer, T. H. Higgins; appointed officers, J. H. Springer, A. L. Kraft, Philip Darby, John Forney, George McKellar.

Franklin lodge No. 3—Noble grand, Wm. L. James; vice grand, John Howell; secretary, Percy Hamilton; treasurer, L. A. Hoffman; appointed officers, Bros. John Bachtler, Chas. E. Keys, Ellis Rutter, C. H. Wagner, W. L. Robb, G. A. Harvey, C. H. Relster, C. K. Smith, J. A. Taylor.

Wheeling lodge No. 9—Noble grand, J. C. Mansberger; vice grand, Percy H. Hornbrook; secretary, Samuel Darrah; treasurer, Jacob Morris; appointed officers, Harry Renner, John Rose, Adam Honecker, Saylor, John Vierheller, John Beckett, Conrad Uttermohlen, Ed Morris, Henry Meigel, Ellis, L. J. Davis.

Excelsior lodge No. 40—Noble grand, Joseph Horwood; vice grand, Conrad Bachman; secretary, Eugene Deiters; treasurer, Wm. H. Gill; appointed officers, J. W. White, Wm. Knabe, Edward Kimble, Ephraim Dimmack, David Parrish, D. W. Latimer, James Stearns, John E. Crumbacker, Wm. T. Zané, Jr., Cyrus Oldham and Richard Mooney.
